Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging-down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and local treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription;" it will not perform miracles; it will not disolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this remedy of known composition.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative, and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

NEW YORK'S SUNDAY LAW.

Opposition to the Sunday closing law for places of amusement in New York as interpreted by Supreme Court Justice O'Gorman, and as it will be enforced on Sunday by the police continued to crystallize yesterday. Several clergymen asserted yesterday that the too strict observance of the Sunday amusement law was pernicious.

"This closing of theaters and amusements resorts simply put a premium on the back rooms of saloons and other places of the kind," and Rev. Father James B. Curry, a Roman Catholic; "it cannot last. There is a middle ground in this question, and it must be found. However, no solution will be found if dependence is placed on the theorists and faddists and the issue which has arisen in their work. There is no more harm in sitting in a theater and seeing a good play than there is in sitting at home and reading a good book on Sunday. It is a day of relaxation and rest. You cannot keep people in the churches all day, and if you can't you've got to find something for them to do after they have attended services. The saloon is not the place. There can be public amusements on Sunday, and they need not be objectionable."

"The decision of Justice O'Gorman is too sweeping," said Rev. Madison C. Peters, of the Baptist Church; "it is neither right nor just that the people of this time should be compelled to submit to a law which was framed fifty years ago without any idea in the minds of its framers of the conditions which have arisen. I am afraid that this order, unless it is rectified immediately, will cause a reaction which will give us a looser Sunday than we have ever known. The pendlum has been pushed too far one way. It must swing back. The decent element of the community must prevent its doing any damage."

KISSED HIS WIFE'S GRAVE.

Lying flat upon the ground, his face pressed upon the snow-covered grave, Julian Pavlicnic yesterday repeatedly kissed the resting place of his wife, whom he murdered at Newport News a year ago by sending 11 bullets into her body. Pavlicnic, who was taken to the penitentiary yesterday to begin his sentence of 10 years, was allowed to visit the grave of the woman by Judge Blackstone, of the Elizabeth County Circuit Court. The Austrian made this unusual request of the court. Between his kisses on the damp earth, Pavlicnic alternately prayed for himself and the soul of his dead wife and thanked God he had murdered her.

To the guards that accompanied him to the cemetery he repeated what he had often said before, that he was glad he had killed his wife, that it was for the best and that he believed he had committed no crime

His was one of the most remarkable crimes in the annals of the courts of Virginia. His wife was sent to an insane asylum from Newport News three years ago. She was discharged two years later, and, after being home a year, her husband murdered her in cold blood while she cried for her life. He shrouded the body, washed away the traces of blood on her clothes and the room, and going to Newport News told Chief of Police Reynolds of the crime. He said that he had promised his wife that if she ever showed symptoms again of becoming crazy he would kill her, for she preferred death to living in an asylum. On the night of the crime, he said, she appeared to be crazy, and leaving the bed, he secured his pistol and shot her 11 times.

How Diptheria Is Contracted.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

HOUSE BURNED BY METEOR.

One man was seriously injured in a runaway and a house was burned to the ground near Bellefontaine, Ohio, early yesterday morning, as the result of the falling of a meteor. Like a ball of fire it darted from the sky soon after midnight, striking just beyond the house of W. W. Westhaven, which it set fire.

As the meteor hit the earth it sent forth a sizzing sound, accompanied by such a glare of light that a horse C. E. Beckett was driving in the road not thirty feet distant, bolted. Beckett was thrown from the buggy and sustained internal injuries in addition to a broken leg and fractured collar bone.

The meteor struck in a field owned by Thomas Nelson, cutting a hole twenty feet deep in the earth. Richland township residents already have begun the task of digging the strange intruder from its resting place.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, DEC. 7, 1907.

LONDON TIT-BITS recently gave the results of strikes in different countries. According to that paper fifteen thousand people were killed and wounded, property to the value of $100,000,000 burned or otherwise destroyed, and an empire shaken to its foundations. Such, briefly stated, was the outcome of the great series of strikes among the Russian railwaymen, which broke out at St. Petersburg on October 21, 1905, and was forcibly quelled at Moscow, amid unexampled scenes of carnage and red ruin, on the 24 h of December following. In 1877, when the American railwaymen went on strike, no one anticipated any very serious trouble. Nor was there just at first. Then the strikers realized that they were being beaten and at once pandemonium reigned. Bridges were dynamited, trains were derailed and set on fire, railway stations by the score went up in flames. At Columbus, Cleveland, Buffalo, and elsewhere, the fighting was of the most desperate character. But the worst scenes of all were enacted at Pittsburg. Here the station, which was crowded with fugitive nonunionists, was shelled by the strikers and afterward deliberately set on fire, with the result that nearly all within perished. Afterward the mob planted cannon looted from the city armory—at the approaches to the yards and sidings, and dared the troops to come on. The challenge was promptly accepted by Gen. Sherman, who commanded, and hundreds of the maddened strikers fell to the bayonets and bullets of the regulars. S was order restored. But the damage to property in that one city alone was estimated at be ween ten and fifteen million dollars. Most other nations, too, hav suffered in like fashion at one time or another in connection with similar disputes. Germany has twice seen her entire system at a standstill. In Italy, during one black week in May, 1898, scarcely a train was running, and bread became so scarce in consequence that the frenzied populace rose in revolt.

THE Theatrical Managers' Association of New York held a special meeting Thursday and decided that all theaters should remain closed next Sunday. Earlier in the day Police Commissioner Bingham announced that not in regard to playhouses alone, but in every other respect next Sunday would be the "tightest" in New York's history. He said there would be no racing at the six-day bicycle contest, which is advertised to begin at Madison Square Garden next Sunday, before midnight. Every law in the statute books would be enforced to the letter, the commissioner announced. "All music in restaurants must stop, and the order applies as well to the lectures and pictures of foreign lands that are given or exhibited at the Y. M. C. A. A conservative estimate of the loss thus entailed is given by one manager as $200,000. A call was issued Thursday for a mass meeting to be held in Terrace Garden Sunday afternoon, under the auspices of all the central German organizations of the city, to protest against the law closing the theaters on Sunday and its enforcement by the police.

FROM ALL that can be learned, at least five hundred miners have perished in the West Virginia horror, and one thousand children, most of whom are weeping around the entrance to the mine, are fatherless. The occupation of a miner is one of constant danger, as he virtually takes his life in his hands every time he descends a shaft. About four thousand men have perished by mine accidents in different parts of the world during the past twenty years. Yesterday's calamity was at our own door, that is in an adjoining State and one which within the memory of many now living was a part of the Old Dominion. The dispatches tell of wives and little ones remaining at the scene of the accident all night, enduring the cold, still clinging to the hope that the breadwinners may yet emerge from the mine. Most of them are destined to go away in sadness and that, too, at a season when others are preparing for joy.

THE really important and somewhat dramatic feature of yesterday's gathering of the republican national committee in Washington was the eager and almost exultant expectation with which the members gathered at the White House, convinced that the President was going to avail himself of the occasion to reiterate his election night statement, and the inscrutable but ineffable smile with which the President greeted them, said a few complimentary words, shook hands all around, and dismissed them. That was all.

Editor Leavitt was acquitted at Havana, today on a charge of criminal libel made by former American Consul-General Frank Steinhart. The Post published editorials charging graft in connection with plans for the sale of church property to the government and said Steinhart was involved.

From Washington

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
Washington, Dec. 7.

President Roosevelt's private statements that he does not intend to serve beyond his present term are causing a re-alignment of interests that will probably result in the inflation of certain booms, and the deflation of others. The President it is said hopes to hold his supporters until the convention, and throw them to Taft or some other candidate who will carry out his policies, but even his staunchest friends concede that this may be difficult if not impossible of accomplishment. "No president has ever been able to nominate his successor," the anti-Roosevelt forces are repeating with great satisfaction. "True enough," agree the administration shouters, "but only true up to the Roosevelt administration. He has 'busted' all political precedents that he has gone after, to date, and he'll bust that one just as he did the fiction about no vice president succeeding to the presidency by election." Within the last few days the Cortelyou boom has joined the little collection of hope-filled bubbles that were already in the air and is being inflated as fast as possible by a good many of the federal office holding contingent. Those who think they see the Taft boom on the wane believe the President's support will be thrown to the Secretary of the Treasury. At the meeting of the national committee now being held here, the discussion of candidates has been even livelier than of sites and dates. The majority of the committeemen are believed to be for Taft, if Roosevelt is permanently out of the race, but this is by no means a certainty. In the event of a general scrap when the nominating days roll around, Roosevelt will name the man, unless all present signs fail. All the candidates fear Governor Hughes, of New York, and though he is making no move whatever that can be detected on the surface, politicians here agree that he is to be watched most carefully.

Dispatches from Ambassador O'Brien, at Tokio, have shed a new light on the somewhat mysterious recall of Viscount Aoki, Japanese ambassador at Washington. It is now, to all appearances, certain that Japan will demand a new immigration treaty, and that Viscount Aoki's failure to adjust the present situation is the reason for his recall. Ambassador O'Brien has cabled a suggestion that the State Department study the Japanese immigration question, and has drawn attention to certain probable demands of the Japanese government, It is now learned that previous dispatches forewarned President Roosevelt and Secretary Root to such an extent that Viscount Aoki's recall was not altogether a surprise. Japan's attitude in the whole matter is one of dissatisfaction with the present condition of affairs, the brunt of which must be born by Viscount Aoki. If the United States accedes to the demand for a new treaty, Baron Takahria will probably be sent at once to take up negotiations. If not, Secretary Root will be obliged to deal with a subordinate.

MRS. HENDERSON TO WED.

Announcement was made in Winchester yesterday of the engagement of Mrs. Dorothy Henry Henderson, of Millwood, Clarke county, and Nicholas Dunn, a wealthy horse owner and turfman, who came to Virginia several years ago from England. Mrs. Henderson, who was formerly Miss Dorothy Henry, is one of the best-known riders in Virginia, and is a prominent figure at the horse shows in this and nearby States.

She was married several years ago to "Jack" Henderson, a well-known horseman, from whom she was divorced. Her marriage to Mr. Dunn will take place Dec. 20, in the country home at Leesburg, of Henry Higginson, the millionaire banker of Boston, who owns a fine place near Leesburg. Mrs. Henderson's mother is Mrs. Randolph, of Clarke county.

THE MISSING LIEUTENANT.

It was learned yesterday that one of the Washington banks received a telegram from a bank in San Francisco inquiring whether a check signed by John W. Crawford was good. Lieutenant Crawford, some people believe, committed suicide recently by jumping from the ferry steamer Lackawanna. Others, however, never credited the story from the first, and believe he is alive The telegram referred to above will strengthen the believe of the latter.

He shot First through the leg twice and the right hand once. Mrs. First was struck by a dozen bullets.

The prohibition sentiment was also felt farther north in Illinois, where many towns voted out the saloons. In addition a systematic campaign for the Sunday closing of saloons has been undertaken in Chicago, and several score of saloonkeepers of the city have been arrested on evidence gathered by agents of the Chicago Law and Order League.

It is learned that while operating for a throat affection the surgeon allowed his knife to slip, severing the jugular vein. The cause of death is said to have been covered up by the hospital authorities.

CASES COMPROMISED.

As stated yesterday judgments for $52,450 were entered that afternoon in the Circuit Court for Alexandria county, Judge J. B. T. Thornton presiding (not Judge Harrison), in the damage suits pending against the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway Company, the outcome of the wreck at Clarendon, Alexandria county, July 3. The above amount represents the final settlement of all of the suits, with the exception of two.

The amounts agreed upon by the attorneys for the claimants was satisfactory to the attorneys for the railway company and the attorneys representing the receiver. The attorneys representing the claimants expect that the judgments will be met by the railway company at an early date. The two suits pending against the company remaining unsettled are those of A. These suits will, it is stated, be heard at the December term of court, which will convene December 16.

A motion for a change of venue in the two cases pending against the railway company was made shortly before court adjourned that afternoon, but Judge Thornton continued the matter until the regular December term. ATTACK UPON MONASTERY.

Particulars have just been received at St. Petersburg of an attack by 20 Letish-Esthonian bandits upon a monastery near Pskov. The fighting was fierce and determined. The bandits were finally driven off by the monks, who had six men killed and three wounded in the fray. The aggressors were pursued by troops and gendarmes, and between the fighting at the monastery and the subsequent encounters they were practically exterminated, only one wounded robber falling alive into the hands of the authorities.

The robbers made their attack at midnight and succeeded in obtaining almost entire possession of the monastery. The monks, however, rallied and, after a desperate fight, succeeded in driving their enemies out of the building.

The robbers retreated in the direction of Pskov, with gendarmes in pursuit. The robbers ambushed the gendarmes in a suburb of Pskov and succeeded in killing one man and wounding another. They then retired, fighting, in the direction of the railroad station, with the intention of seizing a train and making their escape.

But the robbers had lost steadily in these various engagements and only four men, the survivors of the original 20, made the final dash for the station. They did not get there and, instead, barricaded themselves in a house near the station and put up their last fight. The house was quickly surrounded by troops and set on fire. Three of the four men perished in the flames and the fourth surrendered.

Ex-President Cleveland occupied the chair and addressed the Association of Life Insurance Presidents in New York, yesterday.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Dec. 7.—The stock market was full of very large selling orders from the start. This sudden pressure of stock was accompanied by rumors of coming financial disturbances affecting this city as well as Pittsburg, but these stories were vague and could not be traced to any responsible source. The Hill stocks, after early weakness, became suddenly strong. Great Northern and Northern Pacific both made material gains. The traction stocks showed decided strength. Government bonds unchanged; other bonds irregular.

THE REAL TEST.

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 88

Today's Telegraphic News.

The West Virginia Mine Horror.

Fairmont, W. Va., Dec. 7.—Twenty-six bodies had been taken from Mongah coal mines Nos. 6 and 8 at 8 a. m. today.

The rescue parties have thus far come upon between 75 and 100 corpses in the two mines. Most of them were crushed, however, under such mountains of coal, earth and splintered timbers that it was impossible to extricate them without loss of time.

It is established that there were at least 525 men in the mines at the time of the explosion. There is little doubt that fully 500 lost their lives.

The wives and children of many of the entombed men have not left the mouths of the shafts since the first alarm was given. The night was a cold one, and the mourners suffered intensely, although but few heeded the offers of shelter from their friends. Several of the women fell unconscious or went temporarily mad from grief and exposure, and had to be carried or forcibly removed from the scene of the disaster. One thousand children have been made fatherless.

Two American women in the crowd at the mine entrance attempted to commit suicide when they were told there was absolutely no hope their husbands could be found alive.

Republican National Committee.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The next national convention of the republican party will be held in the Chicago Coliseum, June 14 1908.

This was decided upon today, at the second session of the meeting of the republican national committee, at the Shoreham Hotel.

Vigorous speeches were made by the boosters for Chicago, Kansas City and Denver. The vote was Chicago 32; Kansas City 17; Denver 4. After a motion to make the selection of Chicago unanimous had passed, the committee fixed upon the date.

The committee decided to give state committees the power to define the method of selecting delegates and alternates to the national convention. This was made necessary by the new primary laws of Wisconsin and other States.

Night Riders' Raid.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 7.—In a night riders' raid at Hopkinsville today $200,000 worth of property was destroyed. The riders took possession of the town. The police and fire department's telephone and telegraph equipments were burned and business houses and residences damaged by fire. The mob fired right and left, and the terror-stricken inhabitants kept indoors. The windows of the Illinois business houses and the bank on the main streets were shot out and the entire front of Hopkinsville Kentuckian, which belonged to Mayor Mecham, which has condemned the night riders, was demolished. Several persons were more or less injured. The riders came in on foot over the Illinois Central Railroad tracks. There were 500 in all, and they were heavily armed.

To Enforce Statutes.

Berlin, Dec. 7.—The Czar has issued a circular ordering the provincial authorities strictly to enforce the disabilities imposed by statutes upon the Jews, according to information received from St. Petersburg by influential Hebrews here. The order is accepted as inaugurating a fresh era of official persecution of the race and, being issued under the Czar's own hand, will be literally carried out throughout the empire. It is not yet clear to whose influence the change in policy is due. Enforcement of the disabilities has been suspended since 1905 when Nicholas promised general reforms.

Troops at Goldfield.

Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 7.—Col. Reynolds and the federal troops assigned to keep order during the miners' strike here arrived today and it took possession of the mine properties it will be their duty to guard. There have been numerous highway robberies, burglaries and assaults in the past days, but none of them can be traced to the miners, who deny any knowledge of them.

Sentences Commuted.

Chihuahua, Mex., Dec. 7.—Three Americans, Richardson, Mason and Herle, who were sentenced to be shot Friday for the murder of two other Americans, Mitchell and Devers, whose insurance they attempted to collect, were not executed, but were placed in solitary confinement today for twenty years. Governor Creel commuted the sentences.

Wants $2,000 Damages.

Newman, Ill., Dec. 7.—James Brokel has brought suit against Samuel Leonard for $2,000 charging personal injury. Brokel, while taking leave of Hattie Leonard, fell off the steps and broke his collar bone. He alleges the fall due to Miss Leonard's father appearing while he was kissing Miss Leonard good bye.

Receivers Appointed.

Pittsburg, Dec. 7.—The Colonia Trust Company has been appointed receiver for the Stock Exchange firm of Whitney Stevens & Co, of this city. The house is the oldest and one of the largest in the city, but the news that it has suspended has been discounted and no other firms are affected.

Arrest of Alleged Black Agent.

Naples, Dec. 7.—Antonio Dilucia, recently elected commander in chief of the Camorra, has been arrested here with $20 000 in his possession which the police say he got for furnishing recruits for the "black hand," in New York.

King Oscar's Condition.

Stockholm, Sweden, Dec. 7.—The Pastor Primarius, or head of the church in Sweden, has been urgently summoned to King Oscar's bedside. His Majesty's death is momentarily expected.

Fighting in Morocco.

Paris, Dec. 7.—Fighting between the French troops and Arab rebels along the Algerian-Moroccan border has become general today, according to reports from General Lyautey, the French commander. The French routed the force under Marabout Bothich, who started the holy war, yesterday with small loss to themselves but the death of at least 700 or 800 are reported.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by all druggists, fifty cents.

SCHOOL MONEYS.

Superintendent Eggleston, of the department of public instruction, yesterday issued the following:

The auditor of public accounts on November 20, 1907, reported the amount applicable to public free school purposes out of the revenue assessed for the year. This amount is herein apportioned at the rate of $1.0713 per head of school population.

The auditor of public accounts will forward to each superintendent a warrant for the amount apportioned to his county or city. Upon receipt of this warrant, the superintendent will endorse the same to and deposit it with the treasurer of his county, together with a written statement showing the amount apportioned, and to be placed to the credit of each school district. The superintendent will also furnish each district clerk a statement showing the sub-apportionment of this fund among the several districts of the county.

The law regulating the disbursement of this fund is as follows:

"All warrants drawn by district school boards upon the State school tax fund shall be paid by the treasurer out of any State funds collected by him. But in no case shall he pay out a greater sum for any district than the amount of State school funds apportioned to said district.

"At the annual meeting in August, in each year, the county school boards shall compare the warrants issued by each district board with those paid by the treasurer, and, through the division superintendents of schools report the result to the superintendent of public instruction."

This money is to be disbursed upon warrants of district boards of trustees, as other school funds are disbursed and is to be used exclusively for the pay of teachers of primary and grammar schools.

The following amount will be distributed in this section of the State.

When to Go Home.

From the Bluffton, Ind., Banner. "When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy go home and light up the household." To which we would add, when you have a bad cold go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and a quick cure is certain. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

BURNING OF A STEAMBOAT.

As was stated in the Gazette, the side-wheel steamer St. Marys, owned by the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railroad Company, was completely destroyed by fire early yesterday morning while aground on Holland Point bar, in the Patuxent river. All the crew were saved excepting Thomas A. Thompson, a colored waiter, who perished in the flames. Captain Gourley and the remainder of the crew reached Baltimore last night.

The steamer St. Mary's was formerly the Theodore Weems, and was one of the fleet of the Weems Line, which traded for many years out of Baltimore. She was built by William Skinner & Sons in 1872, and in 1889 she caught fire while lying at Pier 8, Light street, Baltimore, and was burned to the water's edge She was immediately rebuilt and renamed the St. Marys.

The old steamer Columbia was taken from the route between this port and Baltimore in 1875, and her place was taken by the steamer Sue. In the following year the Mary Washington was placed on the route, and the Theodore Weems, in command of Capt. James Harper, formerly of the Columbia, succeeded the Mary Washington a few months later, and the Weems ran on the route until the following year.

FIRE ON NORFOLK STEAMER.

Fire in the second-class quarters of the Norfolk and Washington steamer Washington threatened the destruction of that vessel at Norfolk yesterday. The fire was in the forward section of the steamer, and as soon as discovered Captain Phillips attempted to enter the cabin from which smoke was pouring. He was unable to do so, however, but launched a boat and soon had a stream of water shooting through a port hole. The Norfolk fire department was summoned, but the fire was virtually extinguished when the engines arrived. A hole was later cut in the deck and all semblance of fire obliterated. The Washington left Norfolk on time and arrived here shortly after 6 o'clock this morning. She will leave here about 7:30 tonight as usual. The steamer was not materially damaged. The origin of the fire is unknown.

FREE KINDERGARTEN.

There will be a sale and concert for the benefit of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten on Tuesday, December 10 h. The sale will begin at 1 o'clock and continue through the afternoon and evening. The free kindergarten is a public institution and many are interested in its works. Nearly 40 children are in attendance which means a paradise to many of them. The funds in the treasury are at a very low ebb and money is badly needed by the managers. Among the soloists at the "Old Folk's Song Recital" will be Miss DeDier who will sing "Comin' Thro' The Rye," and Miss Kate Smoot "Good-bye." Mrs. Raymond Hulfish, Mrs. Sherman Fowler and Mr. Ogden and others will also sing.

STOLE A BOTTLE OF MILK.

At an early hour this morning an itinerant who gave his name as James Gallagher appropriated a bottle of milk which had been placed in the door of a residence on Cameron street. The nomad drank about half the contents of the bottle and then threw the receptacle into the street. At this juncture Chief Goods and Officer Sherwood appeared and took Gallagher in charge. He was brought before Justice Cation in the Police Court later and fined $5. Should he fail to pay the assessment he will be sent to the chain gang.

PAY POLL TAXES.

The election for Mayor and three councilmen from each ward of this city will take place the second Tuesday in June, 1908. The law of the State requires that poll taxes shall be paid at least six months prior to the election in which the voter offers to vote. That means that poll taxes will have to be paid on or before Tuesday next. The voters should profit by this warning and get ready in time to vote for officers next spring.

The ark which had been anchored off Jones's Point during the past year was towed to Washington yesterday afternoon.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Last night the Second Presbyterian Church was crowded from the front pew on the main floor to the last seat in the gallery—crowded with men and women eager to hear the gospel in song and sermon. Among those present each night have been several colored people. The singing of the Dailey quartette was again greatly enjoyed. Rev. D. Flinn spoke simply and impressively of the holiness of God and the holiness which man must have in order to be saved. He was listened to with close attention throughout his address. One earnest Christian at the close of the sermon came forward seeking more power and grace.

This morning Mr. Flinn spoke to children, of whom there were many present.

Noon day prayer meetings were held at the Paff Shoe Factory, where the management gave fifteen minutes of their time so their eighty employees could hear the songs, the prayers and the message, also a short service at the silk factory. Fourteen meetings will be held Monday in shops, factories and stores in the city.

Tonight the quartette will do most all the singing at the 7:30 service. Dr. Flinn will again preach.

Yesterday in the glare of the glass furnace at the Old Dominion Glass Works a noon day prayer meeting was held by a company of Christian men who are working in the evangelistic meetings.

At 3:30 tomorrow afternoon Mr. Tom Harrison, of whose conversion in a railroad yard in Atlanta, while he was cursing and swearing, Mr. Flinn has spoken in his meetings, will speak to men at the Second Presbyterian Church.

Foster Afterward addresses were delivered by C. O. Estis, chief of the detective bureau, A. O. P. Grant, of Washington; R. B. Harbaugh, deputy of Supreme Circle of Washington, and F. C. Gilbert, supreme guide of Sharon, Pa. An address of welcome in behalf of Alexandria Circle No. 429. to the visiting members was made by the District Deputy James Foster.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

There will be a public meeting of the Fannie Mercer Missionary Society tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. Rev. Frank Rawlinson, a returned missionary, will deliver an address. Mr. Rawlinson was once a resident of this city, and his many friends and others interested in missionary work will be glad to hear him. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested in missionary efforts to attend. Suitable music has been arranged and will add interest to the occasion. Rev. Mr. Rawlinson will also preach at the night session.

D. A. R. EXHIBIT.

The exhibit sent to the Jamestown Exposition by Mt. Vernon Chapter, D. A. R., of this city, has been returned to the owners in this city. The ladies of the chapter will on January 17th have the collection of interesting articles on exhibition at Lee Camp Hall, at which time they will have an entertainment and sale for the benefit of the tablets they propose to place on the walls of Christ Church to the memory of the pallbearers of George Washington.

THE MARKET.

The market this morning was not overstocked with country produce, and prices were firm. Turkeys sold at 18 to 25 cents a pound, while moderately-sized dressed chickens were being disposed of from 40 to 75 cents a piece. Eggs sold at 35 to 40 cents a dozen, and butter was still 30 and 35 cents a pound. Vegetables had undergone no change in quotations.

THE OLD DAIRY HOMESTEAD.

Mr. Harry Maxwell, tenor soloist of St. Aloysius Church, Washington, has been engaged to sing in the Old Dairy Homestead which will be presented in the Lyceum Hall December 10. The management is leaving nothing undone to make this the finest production yet presented by the Lyceum Dramatic Club.

WOMAN SHOT BY HUNTER.

Mrs. E. C. Perkins, who lives with her husband on the Mill road, three miles below Richmond, in Henrico county, was shot and probably fatally injured yesterday by one of three hunters whom the young woman had ordered off her property.

Perkins, who is a prosperous farmer, had posted his land against the invasion of hunters, in order to insure the shooting rights for himself. The young men, who it is believed came from Richmond, had an altercation with Mrs. Perkins, refusing to obey her order to leave the premises. The young woman threatened them with arrest in event they persisted in remaining on the property. When the quarrel was at its height one of the three, without preliminary warning, raised his gun and fired at Mrs. Perkins, the entire charge taking effect in her breast and shoulders.

Mrs. Perkins fell, bleeding profusely, remaining where she fell until discovered by a chance pedestrian. The hunters, without waiting to render assistance, ran in the direction of the river and escaped.

About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and failed to get it, when one of the storekeepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today.—Geo. W. Spence, Holly Springs, N. C. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great Medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by all druggists. 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FIGHT WITH A MANIAC.

Congressman Hiram R. Burton, of Delaware, was mixed up yesterday in a fierce battle with a maniac, and was badly trampled upon and bruised. He was traveling in a train between Georgetown, Del., and Harrington, and in the same car was a warden taking a lunatic to a sanitarium. The man became very restless, and finally attacked the keeper.

The warden was getting the worst of it, when Mr. Burton sailed in. The insane man saw him coming and grasped him around the waist, threw him against a car seat and on the floor, where he began tramping on him. This brief respite, however, was enough for the keeper, who seized the lunatic from behind, and succeeded in overpowering him. He was tied in the baggage car for the rest of the trip.

Congressman Burton was badly bruised, but spoke in Philadelphia last night at a Delaware dinner.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," in an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles, too, and chilblain disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by druggists. 25c.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Guaranteed under the food and drugs act June 30th, 1906. Serial number 1098

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.
